The Fish Family

Here is a little bit about Dan...

Dan Fish, age 53, was elected for 12 years as State's Attorney to represent and protect the People of Lee County. Dan was born and raised in Dixon, Illinois. He is married to Shannon who works in the reading program for the Dixon Public School District. They have two children, Daniel and Amanda, both of whom are attending college. The newest addition to the family is Bailey, a German Drathaar.
