

Illinois Civil Justice League

Candidate: William J. Luby

Cook County Circuit Court, Ninth Subcircuit, A Vacancy

Resume

WILLIAM J. LUBY

830 East Rand Road Suite Six
Mount Prospect, Illinois 60056
(847) 577-5161

CREDENTIALS

Admitted to the Bar of the State of Illinois.

November, 1994

EDUCATION

Loyola University School of Law, Chicago, IL

Juris Doctor, 1994

Dean's List

Boston College, Chestnut Hill, MA

Bachelor of Arts in History, 1988

Appalachian Volunteers Program

WORK EXPERIENCE

Law Offices of William J. Luby, Mount Prospect, IL

1999 to present

Attorney

Led law practice involved in real estate, estates, criminal trial and appellate practice. Our offices represented hundreds of clients in misdemeanor and felony matters throughout Cook County.

Law Offices of Joseph K. Luby, Mount Prospect, IL

1996 to 1999

Attorney

Represented clients and performed tasks for client intake, case management, and appearing in court for trial, motions, or disposition. Trial experience in misdemeanor and felony criminal matters.

Illinois Appellate Court, First District, Chicago, IL

August 1994 to 1996

Law Clerk to the Honorable Justice Robert Cahill

Assist in judge's preparation for oral arguments; recommend disposition of appeals; research, prepare, and draft opinions and orders.

Law Offices of Joseph K. Luby, Mount Prospect, IL

1990 to 1994

Law Clerk and Trial Assistant

Took trial notes from counsel's table at felony trials; researched and prepared pretrial motions; maintained case files; arranged client intake.

Public Defender Association, King County, Seattle, WA

1989 to 1990

Felony Division Paralegal

Interviewed and prepared clients (as many as 45 a week) for probation violation hearings; assisted 30 felony attorneys in scheduling cases, filing documents, researching court files, and communicating with clients; performed duties as a pro bono volunteer.